

MILLS TAKES ISSUE WITH RECTOR'S WIFE

Disputes Some of Statements
Made by Mrs. Hall to Press

SAYS JEALOUSY MOTIVE

Husband of Slain Woman
Gives Version of Crime
In Interview

(By the Associated Press)
New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 2.—Looking up from work in a coal bin in the basement of the school house where he is janitor, James Mills, whose wife, Eleanor, was murdered with the Rev. Edward W. Hall on Sept. 14, today took issue with some of the statements made yesterday by the clergyman's widow in an interview.

Mills said that he met Mrs. Hall at the church at 8:30 on the morning of Sept. 15. Mrs. Hall yesterday said that she was at the church at 7 o'clock.

"I know it could not have been earlier than 8:30," said Mills, "because my children had already gone to school."

"The first thing Mrs. Hall asked me was: 'Was anybody sick at your house last night?' We then commented on the fact that both my wife and her husband were missing, and I said: 'Maybe they have eloped.' 'No,' was Mrs. Hall's reply. 'I think something has happened to them.'"

"At noon when Mrs. Hall came to my house, I told her I had not heard anything and she said she had not either. Then she went away."

"She is incorrect in her statements that she did not come to my house again at 5:30 o'clock. I remember that I had just returned with some ice and put it into the refrigerator. She stayed only a minute."

"I saw Mrs. Hall again at 7 o'clock in her home. I went there to ask her if she had any news. I stayed on the porch to talk. She did not seem to take it as hard as I did. I had an idea that Dr. Hall and my wife had been together but I did not think there was anything wrong."

"I don't know why I ever suggested an elopement."

Mills said that when he saw Mrs. Hall at the church at 8:30 in the morning she had assured him that she should notify the police. Mrs. Hall stated yesterday she was not certain whether she called the police before or after she met Mills.

Commenting on Mrs. Hall's statement that she was not vindictive and that she did not care to see any one punished for the murders, Mills said:

"I am not vindictive either but I want to see the murderer punished. I believe it was a woman's deed. All these theories about black mail and robbery and things are rot. It was jealousy and I think her throat was cut in spite because of her beautiful singing."

"I never heard any gossip about my wife and Dr. Hall. If I had I would not have stood for it for a single minute. I am man enough not to have kept that job at the church if I thought there was anything wrong between the minister and my wife. I live right and I want others to do the same. I would have gone to Mr. Hall and if he would not listen I would have gone to the bishop and to the vestry."

Mills said he had never heard of his wife having trouble with anybody and said he knew of no enemies that Dr. Hall might have had.

"There was plenty of gossip about members of the choir, though," he added.

The authorities are closely studying Mrs. Hall's replies to newspaper man yesterday in which the rector's widow voiced her faith in Dr. Hall's maintained that she had no theories as to the murderer's identity.

Officials conducting the inquiry into the murder on Sept. 14 of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, declined to comment this morning on the interview given yesterday by Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall to twenty newspaper men.

Detective James J. Mason said two witnesses had stated that Mrs. Hall entered her home at 2:10 a. m. on the morning after the murders, instead of 3:30 a. m. as she told the newspapermen. He said also that those two witnesses said she was alone. Mrs. Hall said her brother, Willie Stevens was with her.

AWAITS LULL

Newark, N. J., Nov. 2.—Wilbur A. A. Mott, special prosecutor in charge of the Hall-Mills murder investigation, declared today that he planned to wait for a lull in the copious publicity given the case before taking any decisive action. Commenting that one New York newspaper had taken the story of the murder off its front page for a time yesterday, he said:

"It is getting harder and harder for the newspapers to keep this story on the front page. I am a good waiter."

Spanked!

Mrs. Adele Bloss Montford, prominent in New York society, played the title role in "She Who Got Spanked," according to her husband, Frederick D. Montford. Her husband, former St. Paul banker, admitted in separation suit papers, that he spanked his bride in a hotel in Naples.

CUYLER FOUND DEAD IN HIS PRIVATE CAR

Head of Railway Executives
Dies Suddenly in Philadelphia Station

(By the Associated Press)
Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Thomas DeWitt Cuyler, a director of the Pennsylvania Railroad company and chairman of the Railway Executives Association, was found dead today in the private car of President Rea of the Pennsylvania, in Broad Street station.

Mr. Cuyler was in Rochester, N. Y., yesterday and was apparently in good health.

The private car arrived at Broad Street station early today and was placed on a sidetrack. According to instructions a porter called Mr. Cuyler at 8 a. m. He received no response and becoming alarmed summoned an attendant and a physician. The doctor pronounced Mr. Cuyler dead from a heart attack. He had been dead a little more than an hour, according to the physician.

Mr. Cuyler was a lawyer but most of his time was taken up with railroad and financial affairs. He came prominently before the country in the recent railroad shop strike by virtue of his position as chairman of the railway executives and took a firm stand against some of the demands of the strikers.

Mr. Cuyler was born in Philadelphia and was 68 years old. He was the son of the late Theodore Cuyler, at one time general counsel of the Pennsylvania railway. He was graduated from Yale university in 1874 and was admitted to the bar in 1876. He was counsel for many large financial and railroad corporations.

Mr. Cuyler was a director of the Pennsylvania railway, the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and the Santa Fe system. He was also represented on the directorate of many local organizations and financial institutions.

Apoplexy was the exact cause of death given by physicians. The body was taken to the Cuyler home at Haverford, a suburb. Mr. Cuyler is survived by a widow and four daughters.

Thomas Nelson Page Dies Suddenly While Walking in Garden

Richmond, Va., Nov. 2.—Within the Old Fork church, where he was christened, near his boyhood home, "Oakland" Hanover county, funeral services for Thomas Nelson Page, author, lawyer and former American ambassador to Italy, will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. His body will be laid to rest beside his wife in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Page died suddenly of "acute cardiac dilatation" yesterday, while walking with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosewell Page, in the garden of his estate, which is situated upon an original grant in the town of England to the "colonial magnate, Thomas Nelson."

Services at the church will be simple, members of the family said, and at noon today the body will be placed aboard a north bound train at Ashland. At four o'clock, final rites will be said at the grave in Washington. Flags of all public buildings in the state were at half mast today in respect to the distinguished Virginian. Mr. Page is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Algernon Barnaby of England, and Mrs. Thomas Lindsay of Boston, and a brother, Rosewell Page of this city.

TO REORGANIZE COMMERCE CLUB ON NEW PLAN

American City Bureau Engaged to Build Organization From the Ground up

MANAGERS ARRIVED

Experts to Conduct Campaign
In Bismarck for Enlarged Organization

Building of the Commercial club on a new plan evolved by the American City Bureau was started today when experts from the bureau began organizing in Bismarck for the work. J. H. McLaughlin is campaign manager, and B. M. Clerk is assistant. Offices of the club were moved from the Hinckley block to the First Guaranty bank building, from which the organization work will be carried on. G. N. Keniston retiring in accordance with his resignation submitted some time ago.

The American City Bureau, which was engaged by the directors of the club for the work, has for several years been engaged in reorganization and expansion work for Chambers of Commerce, Commercial clubs and similar organizations. Messrs. McLaughlin and Clerk come from the eastern part of the country where they have been working in several cities.

The reorganization work will be from the ground up, the representatives of the bureau said. The plan of membership will be adopted. Under this plan, for example, the man who pays $100 into the club does not get one membership but ten. He still has but one vote but may distribute the 10 memberships among other people. Under this plan, according to the managers of the campaign, a greater membership is enlisted.

A democratic plan of election will be provided. Instead of having a nominating committee ballots will be sent to members who may nominate a number of directors. Then ballots will be sent for vote on the highest number selected, double the number of directors.

An educational campaign lasting three weeks will be directed. During that time, it is planned, to have meetings of various sorts, outlining the enlarged scope of action of the club under the new plan. Among those who will be on the staff is Dr. Frank Jaynes of New York, a specialist in educational matters. He is expected here within a few days. The campaign for memberships will be limited to the fourth week, and perhaps not more than three days.

After this has been done another expert of the bureau will come to Bismarck for the "installation work." He will assist the secretary to be chosen in putting the plan into operation. The American City Bureau will, under the arrangement, "mother" the club for three years, furnishing copious information concerning activities of Commercial clubs in various parts of the country, telling of new ideas in merchandising and civic work.

POSTAL PLANE IS WRECKED

Reno, Nev., Nov. 2.—The $25,000 airplane of United States postal air mail officials, piloted by "Slim" Lewis and carrying Arlen C. Nelson, Supt. of the western air mail division, was wrecked at Valmy, 20 miles west of Battle Mountain yesterday afternoon when forced to land in a driving snow storm.

Both men were badly shaken up and bruised. The ship was elaborately fitted and furnished with every convenience for the accommodation of air mail chiefs in their flights across the continent.

The plane will be repaired.

DECREASE IN EXPENDITURES

A decrease of approximately $165,000 in the expenditures in executive and administrative departments of the state government in the last fiscal year is shown in figures compiled in the office of the state tax commissioner. The decreases are reflected chiefly in savings made in expenditures in the Industrial Commission and other commissions.

PLEADS GUILTY TO ABDUCTING GIRL, AGED 11

Man Arrested in Muskegon Awaits Sentence of Court

DOCTOR IS CALLED

Says Mind of Girl May be Permanently Affected
By Experience

(By the Associated Press)
Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 2.—Raymond E. Wilson of Grand Rapids, arrested last night on a charge of kidnapping 11-year-old Rosalie Shanty, pleaded guilty to a charge of abduction when arraigned in circuit court here today.

Wilson was returned to the county jail to await sentence.

Advices from Dublin, in Manistee county, nearly 100 miles north of here, where the child was found wandering in the swamp country, stated that she was still in a highly nervous condition, but probably could be removed to her home shortly. According to Dr. Earl Fairbanks, who is attending her, it will be several days, however, before she will be able to relate her experiences. It is possible, he added, that her mind may be permanently affected.

The child has been able to answer some questions, but her mind frequently wanders as terror overtakes her.

Dr. Earl Fairbanks of Lutheran, who has attended Rosalie at Dublin, issued a statement today declaring the girl's mind may be permanently affected as a result of her experiences. He predicted she would recover physically, however.

"I never will go anywhere again unless papa and mama are with me," the child is quoted as having said today.

"I remember when he pushed me into the automobile and I remember him," she said. "He was horrid and dirty and he had whiskers and one of his fingers was missing. We rode and rode, and then—" Here Rosalie's mind wandered again and she began talking about a pet dog belonging to some of her playmates.

During another period of questioning she expressed fear her mother would scold her.

TURKS FIRE ON RELIEF PARTY KILLING ONE

Athens, Nov. 2.—Enoch R. Applegate of Jersey City, N. J., the Near East relief work who was seriously injured in a recent attack by Syrians, banded on a relief party near Aleppo in which James Lester Wright of Waukesha, Wis., and another Near Eastern worker was killed in a telegram announced.

Wright's death was instantaneous, details of the encounter show a bullet through the neck severing the spinal chord. Applegate received a splinter of a bullet in the leg. Dr. Miller and his wife, the other Americans in the party, were unhurt.

The attack occurred in French territory. The bandit party was composed of Turkish irregulars who fired a volley into the Near East column without warning. In the column were 200 children, half Greek and half Armenian, who were being conveyed from Harput to Aleppo. The already badly shaken party was ready to take flight when they were attacked inside Turkish territory. The children are safe, having been handed over to the care of American representatives.

WAR VETERANS PARADE, PLAN

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 2.—A parade of war veterans' and military organizations, a program at the Fargo auditorium and the annual Armistice Day ball are among the events planned by Gilbert C. Gratton Post of the American Legion for the celebration of Armistice Day in Fargo Nov. 11.

In the eyeletting department of the shoe industry an expert worker can finish 2000 pairs of women's shoes, or 48,000 eyelets, in one day.

SOVIET WILL CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY OF REVOLUTION

(By the Associated Press.)
Petrograd, Nov. 2.—The fifth anniversary of the revolution which swept the Soviets into power will be celebrated throughout Russia next week on a larger scale and with greater splendor than anything of the kind yet attempted by the Bolsheviks.

Beauty Queen of Rumania

A nation-wide contest to select the most beautiful woman in Rumania awarded the crown to Mrs. Alexandrescu. European moving picture producers will star her in films which may later reach America.

DRIVES CHILD INTO SWAMP DESERTING HER

Grand Rapids Man Charged
With Crime Under Heavy
Guard

Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 2.—While 11-year-old Rosalie Shanty lay near death in a farm house at Dublin, Mich., early today, Raymond E. Wilson of Grand Rapids, was being held at the county jail here under heavy guard. A formal charge of kidnapping the child last Sunday, drove with her to the jack pine swamps of Manistee county and there abandoned her.

Wilson confessed, the sheriff's office reported, that he abducted the child. A formal charge of kidnapping was lodged against him and officers, announced he would be arraigned on that count unless developments in the girl's condition warranted a change.

Word from Dublin this morning was that Rosalie, widely known here as the "swimming girl," through her expert exhibitions at a local beach last summer, might not recover. She still was in a semi-conscious state and suffering from a high fever as a result of exposure in the forests, where she was found by a farmer, her clothing torn to shreds and her body scratched and bruised by the underbrush.

In his statement to the authorities Wilson was quoted as saying he enticed the child into his automobile Sunday, drove her about the city for a time, then started for Dublin. Near that town, the reported statement said, Rosalie became alarmed and asked to be let out of the car. Wilson said he left her near a farm house and then returned to Grand Rapids. The prisoner said he was intoxicated when he took the girl into his machine.

Wilson is 41 years old and has been married twice. Officers said he had a police record here.

MARKETING N. D. HORSES IN MAINE

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 2.—Ed. S. Delaney of Valley City, head of the horse sales department of the North Dakota Farm Bureau has ordered two more cars of horses sent him in Maine, where he is marketing them, according to H. H. Fuller, secretary of the organization.

One car is going forward from Casselton and one from Sheldon, Mr. Fuller said. Two cars have been sold already in Maine—one from Oakes and one from Sheldon.

The horses are for the most part farm skunks with some larger draft horses included.

MORE ARRESTS BLAMED TO DRY LAW IN FARGO

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 2.—The ascendancy of the bootlegging industry followed by an increase of drunkenness and small crimes are blamed by Louis Dahlgren, police chief for the fact that there were half again as many arrests in Fargo during October of this year as in October 1921. The record is: October 1921—186 arrests; October 1922—276 arrests.

'MYSTERY' MAN IS RELEASED ON $1,000 BAIL

Cash Bond Is Put Up By His Attorney, J. K. Murray,
In Police Court

NUMEROUS ACTIONS

Numerous developments followed in the "man of mystery" assault case here following the arrival of J. K. Murray of Mott, late yesterday to defend Harry Long, charged with assault and battery on E. A. Hughes. At noon today, following numerous court actions, Long was released from jail on $1,000 cash bail.

After his arrival late yesterday Murray prepared an affidavit of prejudice, asking a change of judges. His affidavit said:

"J. K. Murray, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the attorney for the above named defendant in the above entitled action, and makes this affidavit in defendant's behalf; that said action is a criminal action wherein the defendant is charged with the crime of assault and battery alleged to have been committed against the person of one Edmund A. Hughes; that said action and the defendant have reason to believe and do believe that a fair and impartial trial of the above action cannot be had before W. C. Cashman, the justice about to try the same, by reason of the bias and prejudice of said justice."

"Wherefore, defendant prays that the action be transferred forthwith to the nearest justice within the County of Burleigh and that an order be made transferring the same accordingly."

The matter was presented to Judge Cashman about 6 o'clock last evening. Murray said the affidavit was granted and then counter-manded. Judge Cashman said that if it was filed he sought legal advice and was told that he should act forthwith and then received other advice to the effect that this was not necessary. Murray also asked for a reduction in bail to $250, saying that the bail in such a case should not exceed the maximum penalty, which is 30 days in jail or $100 fine or both. Late last night Murray appealed to Judge Nussle to reduce and direct fixing of bond for Long. Among his grounds, he said, was that it was represented to him that there was talk of mob violence. Judge Nussle did not act.

Murray then sought to put up $1,000 cash bail with Judge Cashman but was unable to find him, he said. This morning, at 10 o'clock, the matter of bail came up before Police Magistrate Cashman, sitting in police court. He declined to reduce the bail, saying that a continuance had been agreed until Monday and that he would not reopen the case except as to bail. Murray then offered $1,000 cash bail.

Police Magistrate Cashman, stating he desired legal advice as to whether cash bail was acceptable and the state's attorney being absent, called E. B. Cox, attorney for Mr. Hughes. Mr. Cox read the statutes, stating that he did not wish to offer advice in the matter but if called upon by the police magistrate would do so. He said that the police magistrate could admit the prisoner to bail and that it was discretionary, in his opinion. Mr. Murray suggested asking Judge Nussle of the attorney general's office, holding it was mandatory. Police Magistrate Cashman called up Judge Nussle, and reported he was advised it was legal to admit Long on cash bail. He then did so. Mr. Murray presented bank certificates of deposit for the cash bail.

Meantime Long had called in a barber and was shaved before he was released, shortly before noon. He left the police station with his attorney.

X-Ray Is Taken

Mr. Murray said that he wanted an immediate trial in the case, and asserted that he would have witnesses present, but declined to indicate just what defense would be offered for Long's action. Long had stated he had witnesses to testify as to what he said to Mr. Hughes before he struck him. The case is set for Monday at 10 a. m.

Mr. Hughes, it was said, was sitting up in the hospital today. An X-ray was made of his cheek and it was disclosed that no bone was broken. It was added.

Friends of Mr. Hughes asserted that Long did not give his real name and that he lives in Minneapolis at St. Paul and were tracing his record. Long declared he was willing that it be traced.

Statements on Case.
Mr. Hughes, in the hospital, said that Long came up to him, asked him

NEW ITALIAN REGIME WINS CONFIDENCE

Authority and Energy of Mussolini Makes Impression
On People

NORMALCY RESUMED

Opening of Chamber of Deputies Is Postponed Until
Nov. 15

(By the Associated Press)
Rome, Nov. 2.—The authority, the energy, and the earnestness with which Mussolini has taken hold of Italian affairs, both internal and external, has created a deep impression in Rome.

His imperative instructions to Count Sforza to remain at his post in Paris until he had reached a decision in the case of ambassadors who offered to resign, and his circular to the prefects "exact" their utmost endeavors and collaboration were regarded as a strong indication of the method the new government is going to use in dealing with the business at home and abroad. In like manner a hint as to the manner of running the government Mussolini will pursue was given by his message yesterday to the press associations in which he said he intended to safeguard the liberty of the press on condition that the press proves worthy of liberty.

Postponement of the opening of the chamber of deputies from Nov. 7 to Nov. 15 has caused some disappointment. Mussolini is reported to desire a little more time to prepare the speech outlining his program and to consult leaders of the various groups and parties in the chamber.

Rome has resumed a normal appearance.

START MOVE TO DEPORT BOOTLEGGERS

Dry Officials Start Drive on Foreign Born Violators
Of Law

New York, Nov. 2.—Efforts to deport foreign born bootleggers would be made by E. C. Yellowley, who assumed the office of prohibition officer for the state of New York.

"Most of the persistent violators of our prohibition laws," he said today, "are foreigners, some of whom have been naturalized and who were, in many instances, compelled to leave the land of their birth because of criminal conduct."

"When the alien or foreign born citizens are reported to me and convictions follow, I will use my utmost efforts to have those immediately deported."

October arrests for violation of liquor laws here break a ten years record, authorities announced today. There was 157 such arrests. Sixty-five bootlegging arrests since April 1, constitutes another record, police say.

ROADS SEEK TO ABOLISH RULE FOR OVERTIME

(By the Associated Press)

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Abolishment time and one half overtime pay after the hour and alteration of rates of pay and rules governing short run around runs, road service, absence from home terminals, basic day and release of conductors and engineers, freedom of conductors and road service trainmen was sought before the United States railroad labor board today the Chicago and Alton railroad. Changes in road and yard service rules for yard men also were included.

Representatives of the "Big Four" Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen; the Order of Railroad Conductors; the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Yard men were present to oppose the request of the railroad. While the principal alteration sought to apply to all of the five organizations, certain other new rule are requested for each class.

JONES CASE IS TRANSFERRED TO FEDERAL COURT

C. R. Jones, assistant cashier of the City National bank, was arrested yesterday charged with embezzlement in violation of the national bank act. C. R. Wittles, deputy United States marshal here announced today. He supplied $6,000 fixed by E. R. Lantierman, Mandan, United States commissioner and is free in Bismarck awaiting a hearing he demanded according to J. J. Ryan, deputy marshal who made the arrest.

He is also awaiting a hearing of a state charge of embezzling about $5,000.

SAYS RELIGION HAS NO PLACE IN CAMPAIGN

Rev. Case of Devils Lake Speaks on This Phase of The Campaign at Cavalier

IS FOR O'CONNOR

Cavalier, N. D., Nov. 2.—Rev. Preston Hovey Case, Pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Devils Lake, speaking upon the state issues he contrasted the honesty and efficiency of the Nestos administration with the inefficiency, carelessness and graft of the Frazier administration. The speaker then paid his respects to the Socialists and the Ku Klux Klan, and deplored the attempts to create religious and racial prejudice. In this connection he said:

"Now let us take up the senatorial situation. Some of my good friends here said to me as I came over to this meeting 'Case be careful what you say. Do not hurt anyone's feelings, do not go too strong, handle this matter with gloves.' But that is just what I am going to do. I cannot spare the rod and spoil the votes by doing so."

"Right here in North Dakota the principle of constitutional government is at stake. The stability of our government is at stake. It is challenged by those who advocate mob rule and who at heart cherish radicalism red and fiery. Do we want our nation to continue to progress as it has since the day of our forefathers—and I do not care if your fathers came from Scotland, England, and Holland as mine did or from Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Germany or Poland so long as they came with clean hearts and with high ideals. These have given their best and have built our great nation by conservative progression year by year. Ever they have moved onward and upward. That climbing has been slow but sure. Now comes the challenge of radicalism. Radicalism which cries, 'Let us tear down and destroy this civilization and build another that will suit us better.' This challenge is to us and we cannot ignore it. If America, if North Dakota is to survive these sacred names must mean more than any party name however dear."

"I do not wish to hurt any one's feelings but this is a time for plain talk and we must use words of one syllable and call a spade a spade. This is the first campaign in which I have been compelled to talk religion. You know that the religious issue was not brought into the campaign by the Independents. It was dragged in by those who are fighting to defeat J. F. T. O'Connor."

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am a Presbyterian Minister, and I am proud of it. I am a Mason and I am proud to wear the insignia of that great order. I am not saying this for political purposes but for fear that the 'Courier Snooze' will say that I am a Catholic Priest masquerading in behalf of Mr. O'Connor. I want to say to you that those who have organized the 'K. K. K.' in order to set flame to religious and racial prejudice in this state are in so doing Un-American from the ground up."

MATRIMONIAL TANGLE PART OF LEGION PLAY

The bride and groom were spending a happy honeymoon in Longbranch, New Jersey, a big eastern resort. While strolling on the board walk one morning, the young bride stepped into a shop to buy a few trinkets, leaving the young and attractive husband to wait on the outside. The young man while casting his eye about at the passers by noticed a pretty widow coming toward him evidently in the greatest distress. Upon investigation he found that she was suffering painfully from an innocent little cinder becoming lodged in the eye. While trying to extricate said cinder, the young wife stepped out of the shop. Then the trouble started. She accused him of being a deliberate flirt and immediately turned the tables on him by starting in to flirt desperately with every man that came along. The young husband becoming frantic at his wife's actions at once made plans to leave the resort and took a country place near Atlantic City. But "she" was not to be baffled. She immediately arranged a big house party inviting all her former suitors. Imagine a situation arising from this. The comedy was a hilarious one. This is an outline of the plot of "GOODNESS GRACIOUS" to be given by The Lloyd Spetz Post No. 1 of The American Legion, Armistice day matinee and night. The cast now working on their parts and an excellent show is promised. There will be special scenery, costumes, and electrical effects brought here by J. R. Corg, shall the director who directed "Look Who's Here" a year ago.

There will be a large chorus of girls and boys who will entertain with peppy songs and dances. The entire production is a wonderful and turgid with comedy lines and situations that will make your sides ache.

M. B. A. dancing party tonight. Members and friends invited.

STAR IN "THE GOLD DIGGER"

GERTRUDE VANDERBILT

Avery Hopwood's most successful comedy, "The Gold Diggers", which had a run of two years at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, followed by a year's run at Powers' Theatre, Chicago, will be presented, under the direction of David Belasco, at the Auditorium on Wednesday, Nov. 8.

The importance and worth of this joyous dramatic offering of Mr. Hopwood's and Mr. Belasco's is well known to all playgoers who keep abreast of the news of the theatre, and the occasions of the first performance of the play in this city will undoubtedly be one of the high points in the local dramatic season.

The plot of "The Gold Diggers", concerns the exploits of a group of typical New York chorus girls during the hours when they are not in the view of the public, but are, instead, engaged in advancing their own interests in the matters of money and sentiment. Mr. Hopwood reveals this intricate and sprightly sort of existence in a most skilful and humorous fashion, and though the picture presented is laughable it is none the less true to life.

The leading role of Jerry Lynam is played by Gertrude Vanderbilt, who is well known to playgoers of this city, and who made a distinguished success in the part during the long run of the play in Chicago. The unusually large company is made up of players of the first rank and the entire production is in accordance with the high standards maintained in all of Mr. Belasco's organizations.

Political Broadcastings

A. C. Townley, who is billed to speak in the Bismarck Auditorium Friday night with Congressman J. H. Sinclair, has made a number of speeches during the present campaign at various places in the state, and has been a hard worker. Townley counts on his reorganization work during the summer and fall to have marked effect in the election.

The Auditorium will house two political meetings this week. On Saturday night will be the big Independent rally, following the red-fire parade. Hundreds of torches are being made for the parade and floats are in the course of construction. George Shafer and Rev. Birchenough will be the speakers.

Senator E. F. Ladd, who made several speeches in the state, has returned to Washington, to prepare for the opening of Congress. Senator La Follette did not deliver as long a speech in Grand Forks as in Bismarck, speaking there only about 30 minutes. He will make some speeches in Minnesota before returning to Wisconsin.

It is believed that a party of Independents from Cavalier County set a new record in campaigning Tuesday of this week. The party consisted of J. W. Mahon, Joseph McGauvran, W. H. Porter and John Scott, the County Auditor. They set out at 6 o'clock in the morning to help remedy a difficult situation in Townier County, where there were four Independent candidates for the legislature, with only two to be elected. Reaching Cando at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, after having called at a number of places enroute, they had a meeting with the Townier County people, resulting after a general discussion lasting two hours in the appointment of a committee of 7, three Republicans and three Democrats of Townier County, with Mr. Mahon as the seventh member, to straighten the matter out and secure the uniting of the Independents on two candidates. Two of the nominees were eliminated, and an endorsement of the entire state ticket adopted. A Finance Committee was appointed which pledged itself to secure at least one-half of the county's quota. Wednesday night. All the newspapers in the county were informed and assurances obtained that the action taken would be given immediate publicity which will reach all Independent voters in the county. The printing of a new voter's guide for the county was begun before the Cavalier County delegates left Cando, and automobiles are being arranged to get the voters guide and other campaign material into the hands of the precinct workers in the whole county Wednesday. The party from Cavalier County reached Langdon at 10 o'clock that night, well satisfied with the day's work.

WOMAN BURIED ALIVE

Mrs. Hazel Burns, whose body with a pistol, say medical authorities, was found in a shallow grave, buried her husband, Henry J. Burns, arrested on charge of murder, in a woods near Painesville, leaving his wife, after he was seen O. recently, was buried alive, leaving the wife hurriedly just being beaten brutally over the head for the body was found.

Congressman George M. Young of the second congressional district of North Dakota spoke at Sykeston. He was accompanied by George D. Collins, Editor of the Carrington Independent and J. E. Galehouse, Independent county manager for Foster County. Behind the speaker was suspended a large poster containing the names and pictures of the Nestos-O'Connor ticket. The congressman made a militant speech. He said: "I am here to fight for the Independent ticket. I am not talking about the tariff; I am not concerned about party politics; I came back home from Washington to join my Independent Colleagues in what let us hope is the last campaign to rid our state of Socialist domination and misrule." The Congressman made a special plea for the election of the Independent candidates for the state legislature in Wells County. He said nothing could be expected excepting a continuous wrangle if the administration and the state legislature were of different faiths, and said if you want a do nothing legislature then send a majority of Non-partisans to Bismarck.

The attendance at the meetings held by the speakers for the O'Connor-Nestos ticket in the north part of the county is very large. The attendance is over double that of similar meetings in the preceding campaigns. The interest and attention given to the speakers is very marked. Those meetings at which Heaton, Anderson and Harrington speak are being well attended and great interests being taken in the talks of the Candidates for the Legislature. Mr. Diehl spoke in Gibbs township last night. Mr. Kitchen, who was with him, told those present about the opening of the mill and elevator at Grand Forks. Mr. Kitchen had just returned from the formal opening. Tonight Mr. Diehl will speak in Hay Creek township. Messrs. Koffel and Davies will speak at Painted Woods. Mr. McCurdy and Mr. Catron will speak in Lyman township while Messrs. Anderson, Heaton and Harrington, who were nominated for the legislature in June, will speak in Phoenix township.

Bobby's Politeness World Renowned

London, Nov. 2.—The fame of the London Bobby for his politeness and affability is world renowned but, contrary to the old legend, he is held in greatest honor in his own country.

A story recently appeared, in a London newspaper relating how a policeman lent a medical man seven shillings with which to return to his home in Brighton. The doctor wrote a letter of commendation to Scotland Yard, which resulted in the statement by an official of that office that daily many such letters are received, and that in many cases policemen go to remarkable extremes in aiding the unfortunate.

This summer a little American girl lost her parents while sight-seeing. She was found by a policeman, and when he learned the name of the hotel at which her people were staying, he hailed a taxicab and paid the driver to take the child there. The officer did not give the little girl his name, and it was only several days later that the father, a Chicago banker, and the girl came across the man on duty. He was rewarded, and a letter of commendation sent to headquarters.

There are 205 navigable rivers in the United States.

WILL RELEASE MORE VESSELS

Action Forecast at Treasury Department

Washington, Nov. 2.—Release of additional foreign vessels held by customs officials after seizure by the prohibition navy was forecast today at the treasury.

Although it was said final decisions were yet to be made, officials indicated that preliminary inquiry had failed in some of the pending cases to develop sufficient evidence against detained vessels to warrant further proceedings. All of the ships affected are understood to have been seized outside the three mile limit.

Fourteen vessels of British and Canadian registry were named in the recent British protest as having been illegally seized by prohibition agents, and thus far only two of them, the Canadian schooner Emerald, and the British schooner Grace and Edna have been released.

FORGET-ME-NOT DAY INDORSED

(By the Associated Press)
Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 2.—A letter endorsing Forget-Me-Not Day which the disabled American veterans of the world war are organizing for Nov. 4, was received from President Harding at national headquarters here today. The President expressed hope that observance of the day may be marked by the most generous manifestation of popular sympathy and support.

WOLFORD BANK IS WRECKED

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 2.—Burglars wrecked the safe of the State bank of Wolford, N. D., completely with nitroglycerin at 2:30 this morning and escaped with $4,000, according to a telegram from Knox to W. C. Macfadden, secretary of the State Bankers association.

They had cut all the wires and escaped.

CUT ALL WIRES

Devils Lake, N. D., Nov. 2.—Cutting all the telephone and telegraph wires in the town, a gang of bandits blew the vault of the State Bank at Wolford, Pierce county, early today and escaped with approximately $4,000 in cash, according to word received here.

The only person in town who was aware of the presence of the bandits was Miss Grace Burness, chief operator in the telephone office, who is reported to have fired at them as they left the bank.

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—Cross examination of the defendant's sister who testified the alleged mental decay in her family tree in support of the insanity defense, was planned for today by the prosecution at the trial of Mrs. Clara Phillips, charged with having beaten Mrs. Albert Tremaine Meadows, 20 year old widow, to death with a hammer.

THORN IN KNEE IS EVIDENCE IN BURCH'S TRIAL

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—A thorn said to have been extracted from the knee of Arthur C. Burch was expected to occupy a prominent position today at his trial for the murder of J. Belmont Kennedy.

When the defendant was arrested at Las Vegas, Nev., a thorn was removed from his knee. It was, according to witnesses, similar to many growing on brambles about the cottage where the young broker was shot to death.

LABORITES IN ENGLAND LOSE

Hope to Make Better Showing On Nov. 15

(By the Associated Press)
London, Nov. 2.—Stunned by the heavy downfall of their candidates in the municipal election held throughout England yesterday, the Laborites intensified their political campaign today with the hope of making a better showing in the general election for parliament Nov. 15.

In yesterday's balloting the Laborites lost 149 seats which they had previously held in London and about 180 seats which they had occupied in eighty boroughs outside the capital.

In some instances Laborite representation was completely wiped out in the municipal elections, but at other polls labor held its own and even made a few gains.

London was intensely hostile to Labor.

DECISIONS OF SUPREME COURT

From Sargent County
State of North Dakota, Plaintiff, Appellant, vs. Ira Kelsey, Defendant, Respondent.

SYLLABUS:
(1) In a criminal prosecution for unlawfully possessing intoxicating liquor, where evidence concerning the seizure under a search warrant was rejected and no evidence was offered or introduced that intoxicating liquors were found in defendant's possession, and where defendant has appeal from an order directing the jury to find for defendant, it is held, that the questions presented are moot and the Court has no jurisdiction thereover.

(2) Where, in such criminal action, the trial court has advised a verdict, and a verdict and judgment of acquittal were returned, defendant's bondsmen exonerated, and defendant discharged, thereby divesting the trial court of all jurisdiction in the action, it is held, for reasons stated in the opinion, that the state, under Sec. 10993 C. L. 1913, possesses no right of appeal.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

BREAD-LINE
How far are you removed from the bread-line? If you lost your job and your income were entirely cut off, how many years, months or weeks would it be before you had to seek charity?

The Morris Plan Banks are making loans to about 2,000,000 people a year. At the annual convention of the heads of these banks, they tell two interesting things about people who come to them for money:

FIRST: The average loan is $186, though some loans run as high as $5000, as low as $50.

SECOND: Three-fourths of the borrowers have no property, are unable to furnish security. They have to get responsible people to "go good" for them by endorsement.

From people who borrow small sums from banks, we pass to another class. You meet them right along—trying to raise loans among their friends.

Every office or shop of any size has at least one person who is always a certain amount of money behind the game. It may be 50 cents or $5 or some other sum.

Whatever it is, it seems to be the improvident one's "borrowing capacity." If you watch, you get so you know just how much he is going to ask for when he rushes up and shakes hands warmly.

A certain fellow seems to be always borrowing $5. He pays it back and soon borrows it again—from the same source or some one else. Often he has a route that he works, in a circle, like the gent who used to do a lot of walking in accumulating his jag.

This fellow is chronically $5 behind the game—just that much removed from the breadline. One of the great financial mysteries is why he doesn't manage to get $5 ahead of the game, so he can borrow from himself instead of his friends.

Borrowing small sums or cups of flour becomes a habit. Housewives have noticed that certain neighbors are eternally borrowing the same things, time after time.

Borrowing started back in the days when an improvident cave man saw his neighbor bring in a catch of fish or a "bag" of wild birds or animals. You can picture the improvident man rushing to the hard-working hunter with this proposition: "Lend me a bird or a carcass and I'll pay you back when I kill some."

A certain number of unfortunates are driven to borrowing from their friends, by sheer bad luck. The chronic borrower, however, is usually a plain old-fashioned specimen of what country town people call shiftlessness.

HORSESHOES
Our nation still has twice as many horses as autos. The auto may be more economical than the horse. However—

The census shows that the country has only 12 horseshoe-making establishments, and the horseshoes they turn out are worth only $1,931,812 a year.

In other words, a year's supply of shoes for one horse is worth about 10 cents when it leaves the factory. Compare this with tires, which are to autos what iron shoes are to horses. The auto's superiority over the horse, financially, is not in the point of contact with the ground.

PRICES
Prices are not apt to drop to what they were before the war, for 10 years at least, reports Prof. Charles J. Bullock. He is chairman of Harvard University's committee on economic research, of the leaders among business forecasters. After the War of 1812 and the Civil War, it took prices about 30 years to drop to normal. The low point of prices occurs, roughly, every 50 years. The last low point was 1896. By precedent, prices of 1896 may repeat in 1946. New and unprecedented conditions, however, may break the rule.

HUSBANDS
A woman in East St. Louis, Ill., is married for the eleventh time. She gives her age as 43. Her latest husband has been married to her twice before.

With items like this cropping out in the daily grist of news, not much attention is apt to be paid to the announcement that the cost of running the national government in the last three months was $139,000,000 less than in July, August and September of 1921.

Humanity is 95 per cent emotional, 5 per cent brains.

GEORGE
A prophet is not without honor save in his own country. On all sides you hear much good said about Lloyd George, very little against him. He has more friends and admirers in America than in England, would be re-elected if Americans did the voting.

So much for the value, or loss, due to perspective. With all respect for American judgment, the English probably know what they are doing. Their election in November will show.

VOTING
From nearly all sections of the country come reports of "fight registration." This is deadly poison for democracy. We neglect what the pioneers shed their blood for—the right to vote. Czechoslovakia makes voting compulsory, by law. We may have to come to it. The man who doesn't vote is the first to howl when public affairs are mishandled.

SENSE
Glenn Frank, editor of Century magazine, says he notices three distinct classes of people—pessimists, optimists and rationalists.

The future hinges on the rationalists, Frank thinks. There is such a thing as too much optimism, the same as too much pessimism. The happy medium is rationalism, or common sense. In the long run it prevails—but usually after the mischief is done and "It's too late."

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

WHAT WILL WE DO WITH THEM?

Now that the Grand Forks mill and elevator are ready for use—despite the rather frantic denials of the league newspapers—just what are we going to do with them? Mr. Lemke, of course, will promptly retort: "turn them over to us and we'll show you." He did "show" us once at the Drake mill and it's too expensive.

Anybody with a couple of million of dollars can build a mill and elevator. It can be done for a great deal less than that. But more than money is needed to operate them successfully and at a profit. Successful operation calls for favorable conditions, brains, initiative, knowledge of the business and the "know how."

When the Grand Forks mill is running at capacity, it will be turning out 3,000 barrels of flour daily. That's a lot of flour. It means 900,000 barrels a year, or 4,500 carloads of flour. It means one and a third barrels of flour for every man, woman and child in North Dakota. The normal flour consumption of an adult is approximately two barrels a year, according to millers. Taking into consideration the reduced consumption for children, the 900,000 barrels would come very close to supplying the needs of the entire population of the state.

That will give some idea of the marketing problem the new mill faces. It must enter a highly competitive field, where competition is of the "cutthroat" type at times, state's attempt to market an entire state's supply of flour when that market is already supplied.

Everyone knows that it is difficult to induce a housewife to change her brand of flour. She becomes accustomed to a certain brand and changes over when there is a very good reason for doing so. If the state mill, therefore, markets its output within the state it would have to induce every housewife and every baker in the state to change brands. This, of course, is a hopeless task, and the bulk of the output must therefore be marketed outside the state. It must compete with the big mills at Minneapolis and Buffalo, for the eastern and export trade.

Fargo has a 300-barrel mill—just one-tenth the size of the new state mill. It has taken many years of hard work, careful management, and skillful planning to build up a market for its output of 300 barrels a day. If it has taken all this time to build up the business of a mill at Fargo to a 300 barrel basis, how long will it take for the mill at Grand Forks under state management to find a market for 3,000 barrels?

Judging from the results of the experiment at Drake, it will take several generations and cost many millions of dollars. The mill at Drake had a capacity of 100 barrels a day, or one-thirtieth the capacity of the Grand Forks mill. It lost $75,000 in operating expenses in two years under the Frazier administration. One is loath to think of the losses that might be incurred at Grand Forks if they were proportionate.

These facts may open the eyes of North Dakota voters to the serious problem they have on their hands. We are "all dressed up and no place to go" so far as the state mill is concerned. The completion of the mill doesn't solve the problem. It just creates the problem. The big problem is to operate the institution without incurring staggering losses. A 3,000-barrel mill is turning out a product worth $21,000 a day. If such a mill were operated for a month without sales, it would tie up $630,000 in flour. It would be the easiest thing in the world for the state to tie up a million or a couple of million dollars in flour and it doesn't take much of a businessman to realize that money can be lost at a staggering rate under such conditions.

The question of whether the mill is actually completed or not, is therefore a trifle that should cause little concern to the voters. The big question is: "what are we going to do with it?" The independent voters of the state have never endorsed the mill project. They are not responsible for its construction. They have merely promised to give it a fair trial.

The Forum has consistently opposed the enterprise and it is more convinced today than it ever was that the voters of the state will bitterly regret having undertaken it. But the question now is one of operating it at a minimum of loss. It can't and won't be profitable. Do we want to permit it to be operated by the men who lost $75,000 in two years in the milling business at Drake, or do we want it left to the Nestos administration which has cut the operation loss at Drake to nothing and has put it on a basis where it is "breaking even" if the excessive interest charges are not considered?—Fargo Forum.

EPISODE TEN
The Twilight of Mike
CHAPTER I

When Quintana turned like an enraged snake on Sard and drove him to his destruction, he would have killed and robbed the frightened diamond broker had he dared risk the shot. He had intended to do this anyway, sooner or later. But with the noise of the hunting dogs filling the forest, Quintana was afraid to fire.

About an hour later Quintana was seen, challenged, chased and shot at by State Trooper Lannis.

Quintana ran. And what with the dense growth of seedling beech and oak and the heavily falling birch and poplar leaves, Lannis lost Quintana and then his trail.

The State Trooper had left his horse at the cross-roads near the scene of Darrah's masked exploit, where he had stopped and robbed Sard—and now Lannis hastened back to find and mount his horse, and gallop straight into the first growth timber.

There was no sound of dogs when Lannis rode in on the narrow, spotted trail whence he had flushed Quintana into the dense growth of saplings that bordered it.

Once, very, very far away westward in the direction of Star Pond, he fancied he heard a faint vibration in the air that might have been hounds baying.

"He was right. And at that very moment Sard was dying, horribly, among two trapped otters as big and fierce as the dogs that had driven them into the drain.

Somewhere among the birches, between him and Star Pond, was Harrod Place. And the idea occurred to him that Quintana might have ventured to ask food and shelter there. Yet, that was not likely because Trooper Lannis had called him that morning on the telephone from that Harroth Lodge.

However, to reassure himself, Lannis rode as far as Harrod Place, and found game wardens on duty along the line.

Then he turned west and trotted his mount down to the hatchery, where he saw Ralph Wier, the superintendent, standing outside the lodge talking to his assistant George Fry.

When Lannis rode up on the opposite side of the brook, he called across to Wier:

"You haven't seen anything of any crooked outfit around here, have you, Ralph? I'm looking for that kind."

"See here," said the superintendent, "I don't know but George Fry may have seen one of your guys. Come over and he'll tell you what happened an hour ago."

Fry's boyish face seemed agitated; he looked up at the State Trooper with the flush of tears in his eyes and pointed at the rifle Lannis carried.

"If I had that," he said excitedly, "I'd have brought in a crook, you bet!"

"Where did you see him?" inquired Lannis.

"Best west of the Scur, about an hour and a half ago. I was sticking the head of Scur Brook with finklings. You know how it is, writes the woods. I kinda felt somebody near. And, by cracky! there stood a man with a big, black automatic pistol, and he had a head on my belly."

"Well," said L. "what's troubling you and your gun, my friend? I was that astonished."

"He was a slim-built, powerful guy with a foreign face and voice and way. He wanted to know if he had the honor as he put it to introduce himself to a detective or game constable, or a friend of Mike Clinch."

"I told him I wasn't any of these, and that I worked in a private hatchery; and he called me a liar."

Young Fry's face flushed and his voice began to quiver:

"That's the way he misused me; and he backed me into the shafts, and I had to sit down with both hands up. Then he filled my pack-basket with grub, and took my ax, and strapped my kit onto his back."

And talking all the time in a mean, sneaky, foreign way—and I guess he thought he was funny, for he laughed at his own jokes.

"He told me his name was Quintana, and that he ought to shoot me for a rat, but wouldn't because of the stink. Then he said he was going to do a quick job that the police were too cowardly to do; that he was going to find Mike Clinch down to Drowned Valley and kill him; and if he could catch Mike's daughter, too, he'd spoil her face for life."

"What next?" demanded the Trooper impatiently. "Tell your story and quit thinking how you were misused!"

"He told me to stay in the shanty for an hour or he'd do for me good," cried Fry. "Once I got up and went to the door; and there he stood by the brook, wolfing my lunch with both hands. I tell you he cursed and drove me, like a dog, inside with his big pistol—my God!—like a dog."

"Then the next time I took a chance he was gone. . . . And I beat it here to get me a rifle. . . . He broke down and sobbed: 'He drove me around—like a dog—he did—'

"You leave that to me," interrupted Lannis sharply. And, to Wier:

EVERETT TRUE BY CONDO

YES, I'M LOOKING FOR A BRIGHT OFFICE MAN. I'LL GIVE YOU A TRIAL. COME IN MONDAY, BUT

IF YOU WORK HERE YOU'LL EITHER HAVE TO GIVE THAT THING UNDER YOUR NOSE MORE ELBOW ROOM OR CUT IT OFF!!!

BY SWAN

"My God, Miss—"
"He is!"
"Listen, Miss—"
She flung open the door and came out into the living-room.
"Harrod is that nephew of old Harrod," she said calmly. "His name is Darrah. And you are one of his wardens. . . . And I can't stay here. Do you understand?"
Wier wiped his hot face and waited. The cat was out; and he knew there was no use in such lies as he could tell.
He said: "All I know, Miss, is that I was to look after you and get you whatever you want—"
"I want my clothes!"
"Ma'am?"
"My clothes!" she repeated impatiently. "I've got to have them."
"Where are they, ma'am?" asked the bewildered man.
At the same moment the girl's eyes fell on a pile of men's sporting clothing—garments sent down from Harrod Place to the lodge—lying on a leather lounge near a gun-rack.
Without a glance at Wier, Eve went to the heap of clothing, tossed it about, selected coats, two pairs of woolen socks, gray shirt, puttees, shoes, flung the garments through the door into her own room, followed them, and locked herself in.
When she was dressed in the two heavy pairs of socks helping to fit her feet to the shoes—she emptied her handful of diamonds, sapphires and emeralds, including the Flaming Jewel, into the pockets of her breeches.
Now she was ready. She unlocked her door and went out, scarcely limping at all, now.
Wier gazed at her helplessly as she coolly chose a rifle and cartridge-belt at the gun-rack.
Then she turned on him as still and dangerous as a young puma:
"Toll Darrah he'd better keep clear of Clinch's," he said. "Tell him I always thought he was a rat. Now I know he's one!"
She plunged one slim hand into her pocket and drew out a diamond.
"Here," she said insolently. "This will pay your gentleman for his gun and clothing."
She tossed the gem onto a table, where it rolled, glittering.
"For heaven's sake, Miss—" burst out Wier, horrified, but she cut him short:
"—He may keep the change," she said. "We're no swindlers at Clinch's Dump!"
Wier started forward as though to intercept her. Eve's eyes flamed. And he stood still. She wrenched open the door and walked out among the silver birches.

At the edge of the brook she stood a moment, coolly loading the magazine of her rifle. Then, with one swift glance of hatred, flung at the place that Harrod's money had built, she sprang across the brook, tossed her rifle to her shoulder, and passed lithely into the golden wilderness of poplar and silver birch.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

Nancy and Nick looked and looked and looked for Mother Goose's broom.
They were still up in the sky on the star called Jupiter, a great big bright one where a lot of Mother Goose's people lived.
Pretty soon they heard music.
"It's a fiddle," said Nancy. "It makes me feel like dancing."
"It must be the Piped Piper of Hamelin," said Nick.
"Or King Cole," remarked Nancy. "Perhaps it's one of his fiddlers."
"Or it might be Tom the Piper's son who learned to play when he was young, said Nick.
But to their amusement it was none of these, for along the road came a cat, at that very instant, playing a fiddle and doing a jig.
And now you know who it was, my dears!

"Hi diddle diddle, the Cat and the Fiddle!" he sang.
"Goodness alive! How did you get here?" asked Nancy.
"I'm looking for the cow that jumped over the moon," answered the cat. "I feel that my playing caused all the trouble, and her master needs her. Also, the dish that ran off with the spoon hasn't come back. Did you happen to see either of them?"

"Not," said Nancy, shaking her head. "Everything is lost—it seems. Mother Goose has lost her broom, too, and the cobwebs on the sky are so thick that people on the earth think they are clouds. They say she has started to raid one of her geese."

"No doubt," answered the sat solemnly, blinking his eyes. "But I must be on my way. Don't forget to look for the cow, will you? Or the dish! As for the spoon, someone told me they had seen a dinner in the sky. Maybe that's it! I'll go and look."

AT THE MOVIES

THE ELLINGE.

Said to be one of the most dramatic photoplays produced by Cosmopolitan in many months, "The Valley of Silent Men," a picturization of Paramount of James Oliver Curwood's celebrated novel of the same names, comes to the Ellinge theatre next Friday and Saturday. Alma Rubens is the featured player and the principals in her support are Lew Cody and Joe King.

The story deals with a Canadian girl who devotes her life to exonerate the man who, to save her brother's life, assumes responsibility for a murder of which the latter is accused. In the development of this story, there are many thrilling moments, while the finish is novel and dramatic. The picture was directed by Frank Borzage, creator of "Homestead" and the scenes were photographed in the rugged Canadian Rockies.

Mrs. Sherman Heiped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake, Michigan. "About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weakness and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish."—Mrs. MARY SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and their own experience simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine.
If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Appeals to Women To do Their Part On Election Day

Mrs. Lyman N. Cary, president of the North Dakota Federation of Women's clubs issued an appeal today to the club women of the state to do their part in the election Tuesday, Nov. 7, when she said to the club women of the state:

"Tuesday, Nov. 7th is election day. It is the sacred duty as well as the privilege of every woman to vote on that day. The result of this election means so much to our State that not one club woman should neglect her solemn duty as a citizen. Please do everything in your power to secure a full vote from the women of this state."

Former Resident Married in Fargo

Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Mary Josephine Sinner, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Sinner of Fargo and Dr. John Joseph Link of McVie, formerly of Bismarck, at St. Mary's cathedral in Fargo by the Rev. Father Egan, Tuesday morning.

Miss Ann Sinner attended her sister as bridesmaid and Joseph Sinner, a brother of the bride attended the bridegroom. A wedding breakfast was served at the Sinner home.

Mrs. Link has made her home in Fargo for the past two years. She formerly resided in Casselton and has been engaged in teaching school at several places in the state during several years past.

Dr. Link was formerly connected with the Roan & Strauss medical staff. He is a graduate of the medical department of Northwestern University. Dr. and Mrs. Link left yesterday afternoon for a wedding trip to the Twin Cities, Chicago and New York. They will make their home at McVie where Dr. Link is engaged in the practice of his profession.

VISITING HERE.

Miss Gertrude May of Jamestown, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. F. Runyan. Miss May returned last week from a visit in Europe. While in France she visited the grave of her brother who was killed and laid to rest on the battle field of Verdun. In England she visited with relatives.

GIVES PARTY.

Miss Eunice McQuillan entertained a "tea" friends at a hallowe'en costume party Tuesday evening. Games were played by the young people during the evening. Refreshments were served at the close of a delightful social evening.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. G. A. Rawlings was hostess to the members of the Fortnightly club yesterday afternoon when the following program was given:

Cooper—Mrs. Worth Lumry.
Bryant—Mrs. Edward B. Cox.
News of the Fortnight—Mrs. Philip Meyer.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. E. C. White will be hostess to the Women's Club. There will be a Round Table discussion of the tariff. Mrs. Paul F. Ryan will give a paper on "The Origin of the Drama." Mrs. J. P. Cyran and Mrs. Wm. McGraw will render an instrumental duet.

CHAPTER TO MEET.

The Minuteman Chapter D. A. R. will meet Friday evening, Nov. 2nd, at the home of the Misses Helen and Lucille Dahl.

BENEDICT BRIDE CLUB.

Members of the Benedict Bridge club enjoyed a dinner and hallowe'en dance at the Country club Tuesday evening.

NONPARTISAN AUXILIARY MEET.

The Nonpartisan Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock this evening at Odd Fellows hall.

M. B. A. DANCE.

Free Night School Opened by Teachers

A free night in citizenship has been organized by Mrs. W. S. Casselman principal of Will's school, and Miss Agnes Boyle, principal of Richholt's school. Classes will be held every Thursday and Friday night from 7 to 10 o'clock at Will school, beginning this week.

Nine people have already enrolled in the citizenship classes. A number of others have indicated their desire to enter the school. These include men principally who are interested in obtaining sufficient knowledge of American government to secure their papers of citizenship. In these classes instruction will be given in the Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution of the United States. Classes form persons who are unable to read and write in the English language will also be organized. Instruction will be given in reading, writing, and some arithmetic. This school will be a free for all who wish to attend it.

Night school similar to this were conducted here last winter, but they were closed during the summer months.

Commercial Club Board Gives Dinner

Directors of the Commercial club and their wives were hosts last night to Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Keniston at dinner at the Grand Pacific hotel in compliment to Mr. Keniston's service in the club, he having resigned, effective Nov. 1.

E. B. Cox outlined the work which had been accomplished by the board which is composed of himself, Worth Lumry, J. O. Anderson, and Carl Nelson. In response Mr. Keniston related the accomplishments while he was secretary of the club for the past six years.

It has also been announced that Miss Elizabeth Wetmore, who has been secretary to Mr. Keniston for the past year and a half has been appointed as acting secretary to the Commercial club.

Decorations were carried out in yellow chrysanthemums.

CAPITOL.

New York woke up one morning to find itself talking about a new sensation, the play, "The Storm," written by Langdon McCormick. It is a very dramatic piece laid in the clean North woods. No sooner was its fame flaming up in the theatrical sky than Universal bought it and made a special production starring House Peters and directed by Reginald Barker. Virginia Valli, Matt Moore, Josef Swickard, and Frank Lanning are players in the picture, which comes to the Capitol theater soon.

TEN GREEK PRIESTS ARE BURIED ALIVE

Refusal to Embrace Islamism, Is Cause Says Cablegram To Washington

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Greek metropolitan and ten priests, captured by the Turks at Aivalia, were buried alive because they refused to embrace Islamism, according to a cablegram received today from Athens by the Greek legation.

Word also has been received in Athens the message said, that all Greek who remained in Aivalia and on the islands of Moschonissia have been massacred and that wells in the vicinity "are filled with the bodies of young girls," who drowned themselves to escape the Turks.

Christians in Smyrna between the ages of 18 and 5, the legation was informed, have been deported and forced to hard labor, hundreds dying from hunger and fatigue.

PRES. HARDING OBSERVES HIS 57th BIRTHDAY

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 2.—President Harding today celebrated the fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday.

There were no indications at the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the chief executive. The President's plans called for his appearance at his office at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noonday period devoted to meeting visitors in the capital, luncheon and then perhaps a few hours of golf over the course of a nearby country club.

Because Mrs. Harding is still confined to her bed although recovering from her recent illness there will not even be a birthday dinner party but the President will spend the evening with her.

U. S. DESERVES AN APOLOGY

London, Nov. 2.—The case of the American consulate at New Castle has been settled in principle, it is understood in diplomatic circles here, but the opinion is expressed that the United States will desire an apology in connection with the charges of discrimination against British shipping which led to the closing of the consulate last summer.

The resolution was sent to the house of representatives.

Mill City Sheriff Is After Cattle Rustlers

Minneapolis, Nov. 2.—Wildwest days of cattle rustling and horse stealing with a sheriff's posse galloping over the hill in pursuit of the thieves, was prepared for a necktie party, were reenacted today when half a dozen Hennepin county deputy sheriffs started out in automobiles to round up a cattle rustling gang.

"Widespread cattle rustling has victimized scores of farmers in Hennepin, Wright, McLeod and Scott counties," Chief Deputy John P. Wall said, "and today's roundup is to be aimed at the principal gang."

"Warrants have been issued and at least six arrests are expected within a few hours."

Wall said that cattle thieves had been very successful. Their practice has been to steal and slaughter calves, sell the carcasses on to a truck and bring them into the Twin Cities where they are sold at fancy prices.

KANSAS BOASTS FITTEST FAMILY

MRS. CHARLES A. HALL BETTY PEAN HALL, 3 ROBERT, 15 MONTHS CHARLES A. HALL

GREEN NOTRE DAME TEAM FACES EIGHT HARD GAMES

Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame is one of the dramatic figures of the present football season. After producing great teams at Notre Dame during his four years as head coach—teams which lost but two games in four years, and which won three consecutive games from West Point, Nebraska, Indiana and Purdue, Rockne found himself "born entirely of the masters of the game who made history in 1921, when the football squad reported. Ten men of that team had been picked for all-America by some expert or other. Paul Castner, who broke into a 50-50 division of the right half position as the season closed, was the only regular who remained.

In the meantime, Rockne, who is also director of athletics, track coach and almost every other thing there is in Notre Dame athletics, had scheduled Georgia Tech, Purdue and Indiana for major games. Depauw and Butler were carded as soft spots. St. Louis and Kansas are setups. Kansas acted nobly, but St. Louis refused to let walk on. Then Depauw tied Indiana and Butler beat Illinois. Carnegie Tech tied and outplayed W. and J. So, beginning with Purdue, Rockne faced eight hard games in a row—faced them with a team composed mostly of sophomores. And during the Purdue game he lost his most valuable lineman for the season—Tom Lieb—who went down with a broken leg. Did Rockne quit? It was then that the wonderful personality which more than any other factor results in Notre Dame's greatness in football asserted itself. He told his men that he would be hard to satisfy from then on. That they must make up for lack of weight and lack of experience by something else—the something else which had given Notre Dame teams the title of "Fighting Irish."

"I don't want men who will go in and die gamely," he said. "I want men who will go in there and fight to live."

MEXICAN DEMAND FOR FLOUR GREAT

Mexico City, Nov. 2.—During the year ended September 30, Mexico imported from the United States $1,702,489 worth of flour, and the demand for the American product is said to be on the increase. The reason ascribed is that no matter how much flour is produced in Mexico, the hard American flour is needed to mix with the Mexican product to make a bread palatable to white bread consumers. It might also be mentioned that during the same fiscal year just ended more than $1,000,000 worth of eggs were brought into Mexico from the United States.

A new American fruit named Peachmond, combining the juicy, luscious qualities of a peach and the edible kernel of the almond, has been perfected by the federal agricultural department under the direction of Professor Juan Balme. Grafts were made of freestone peaches with the paper-shell almond common to California, and the result is said to be a fruit whose meat is peach and whose kernel is almond.

RICKEY GIVES REASONS FOR TEAM'S FLOP

"What was the cause of the failure of the St. Louis Cardinals to make a better showing in the National League?"

Recently that question was put to Manager Branch Rickey of that team.

"Back of pitching," was the immediate reply.

"The lack of pitching," continued Rickey, "was brought about by the absolute collapse of Wills Donk.

"Last year and the year before, when Donk started a ball game I figured the chances of winning the game were greatly in our favor.

"On past performances I figured on Donk to be the ace of the Cardinals' pitching staff in 1922. Donk appeared to have his usual stuff last season, but he simply couldn't win.

"When the ace of your pitching staff goes wrong, you have suffered a real wallop. If our pitching had held up I feel sure we would have won the pennant."

There you have the inside dope on the collapse of the Cardinals when they seemed all set for the pennant.

FROM STUTSMAN COUNTY.

C. R. Hodge, Plaintiff and Respondent, vs. Maud H. Dunlop and Charles N. Wells, Defendants and Appellants.

SYLLABUS:

1. It is a general rule that acquiring title and causing the lien of a mortgage to be cancelled by payment, in ignorance of defects in the title, will afford ground of equitable relief for cancellation of the release and for subrogation to the lien of the mortgage released, where there is no element of estoppel, the rights of bona fide parties are not affected, and the restoration of the released mortgage will place the holder of the junior lien in no worse position than he was at the time the mortgage was released.

2. In the instant case the plaintiff purchased a tract of land from one who represented that he was the owner of the tract in fee simple, subject alone to two certain mortgages. After acquiring such title the plaintiff, in good faith, and in reliance on the representations made by his vendor, paid the first mortgage and caused the same to be released. Subsequently, plaintiff learned that his vendor owned only one-half of the fee simple estate; and that there was a judgment against the owner of the other one-half of such estate, which was a lien junior to the mortgage released. There are no subsequent purchasers, and the holder of the judgment has in no manner changed his position, and the restoration of the mortgage will place him in no worse position than he was at the time the mortgage was released.

Held, that the plaintiff is entitled to have the mortgage restored and to be subrogated to the rights of the

POULTRY BUSINESS TO BE LUCRATIVE

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 2.—Poultry raising is going to be one of the most lucrative businesses the North Dakota farmer can engage in during the coming winter, according to O. A. Barton, poultry specialist of the North Dakota Agricultural College.

Statistics show that egg and poultry prices have been more stable since the war than prices of anything the farmer can grow in his fields, he declares.

During last January eggs reached a price at which it was possible to buy a bushel or more of any kind of poultry feed grain except wheat with one dozen of them he said. This year, he added, this will probably be the case again.

He also pointed out that one dozen eggs produced during the winter months are worth three dozen produced in the spring; that two dozen eggs at this time will pay for the "keep" of a hen all year.

"It would not do the farmer any good to know this if there were no way of increasing production of any breed of chickens can be increased by reproduction of the individuals

PRINCESS HERMINE'S ANCESTRY DATES BACK MANY CENTURIES

Berlin, Nov. 2.—Since the announcement of the engagement of former Emperor William to Princess Hermine of Russia, there are many stories being told of the

PRINCESS HERMINE'S ANCESTRY DATES BACK MANY CENTURIES

The male members of the Russ family all bare the name of Henry, each one being numbered. By an arrangement made in 1705 the senior line, to which the Princess Hermine belongs continues this enumeration up to a hundred and then begins with the next born as Henry I. The junior branch, however counts from the beginning of each century, when the first born is named Henry I. December 31, closes the century's list, no matter how far short of the hundred mark the names may be. The brother of Princess Hermine is Henry XXIV.

NEWS BRIEFS

(By the Associated Press)

Pueblo, Colo.—Alva Adams, 72, former Democratic governor of Colorado, died at Battle Creek, Michigan. He was credited with having originated the slogan: "See America First."

Washington.—Invitations to a national convention of farmers' cooperative marketing associations December 14-16 were sent out by the National Council of Cooperative Marketing Association.

Newport, R. I.—Rear Admiral C. S. Williams assumed the presidency of the naval war college succeeding Rear Admiral Wm. S. Sims, who retired.

Cambridge, Mass.—Robert Wheeler Willson, professor emeritus of astronomy at Harvard, died.

Minneapolis.—The government won its $40,000 income tax suit against the Cedarburg Milk company and three of its stockholders.

Chicago.—Superintendent Morison barred sex subjects from the public schools.

St. Louis.—The Wainwright Brewery closed after seventy years. Home brewing was blamed, officials saying the demand for soft beverages was insufficient to continue operation.

Chicago.—Ben W. Hopper, chairman of the Railroad Labor Board said the board served the best interests of labor and the public. He assailed Edsel Ford, Samuel Gompers and Wm. Randolph Hearst.

Red Wing, Minn.—A spectacular fire destroyed "A" of the Red Wing Sewer Pipe company causing a loss estimated at $150,000.

St. Paul.—Refusal of use of a building to Senator LaFollette was based on a decision not to permit use of the building until a rental of $1,000 was paid, it was explained.

Minneapolis.—Two additional men were arrested in the bond conspiracy case and were released on $5,000 bond.

BADGERS READY FOR GOPHERS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 2.—The University of Wisconsin football squad leaves for Minneapolis tonight where it will await Saturday's game with Minnesota. Injuries and an inability have cut into the Badger's chances of a victory, although the team is expected to be able to down its ancient foe.

A hole in left in the line with the conference rushing today that Murray, regular tackle is ineligible for further competition. Schmeckler will probably take his place but he will enter a week line without Murray's experience.

Although Williams, Harris and Gibson, all regular backfield men are suffering from injuries, the coach expects that they will be recovered sufficiently to get into the game.

Heavy rains slowed up practice last night and will hamper training today, the last time the squad will train on its home field before leaving for Minneapolis.

IRRIGATION TO BE DISCUSSED

A call has been made for a meeting at Medora on November 4 to perfect organization to further the interest of the proposed Roosevelt Bad Lands Reclamation project, according to word received here. Paul Lebo of Medora, who is at the head of the campaign, expects many representatives present from western North Dakota to take up the matter of obtaining recognition and aid from the national government for the project.

It is declared by Medora men that the proposed irrigation dam could be utilized in a water power project which would furnish electricity over a wide stretch of territory from a central station.

"MICKEY" WINS WORLD TITLE AT GOTHAM

Welterweight Boxing Champion of World by Defeating Britton

New York, Nov. 2.—A grinning, towel headed young fellow from Elizabeth, N. J., is welterweight boxing champion of the world today because he had absolutely no respect for old age, wisdom and cunning when he ran athwart them at Madison Square Garden last night. His name is Michael Edward Walker, but the boys call him Mickey.

Mickey Walker is the new champion and Jack Britton, the sage of the ring, is again an ex-champion. Its not a new role for Britton. Jack held the title for nearly a decade, first losing it to Ted Kid Lewis and later regaining it.

The battle last night will stand out in the memories of those who saw it as one of the most curious in the sport. Almost unprecedented in even minor battles and extremely rare among titular contests was the action of the state boxing commission in announcing before the contest started that all bets were off.

The state of New York by law and the boxing commission by regulation prohibits betting on the bouts, even if it does flourish. At any rate Chairman Muldoon of the commission became worried when he learned before the bout that the odds had changed within a few hours from six to five on Britton to eight to five on Walker.

The fight was a rattling affair from the first going and when the fifteenth round ended and the battered champion was still on his feet the crowd rallied to the cry of Joe Humphreys, the veteran announcer and gave three cheers to what was called "the best champion who ever lived his title in this arena."

Walker led from the first, and even though somewhat wild, penetrated the masterly defense of Britton at once, landing numerous damaging blows and putting the champion on the defensive. Britton went to the floor nearly half a dozen times.

Britton's chief stock last night was courage and craftiness. Both enabled him to escape a knockout. Walker too, had cunning, but the effort of continually beating the canny Britton, who forced a maximum expenditure of energy for the smallest return and occasionally shot in a staggering blow himself, wore down the challenger and he was weak when the battle ended.

BOXING CARD FOR WILTON

Bat Krause and Joe Maugs to Stage 10-Round go Nov. 17

A boxing carnival will be staged at Wilton the night of November 17 under the auspices of the American Legion. The main go will be 10 rounds between "Bat" Krause of Bismarck and Joe Maugs of Medina. Maugs has twice fought Krause and has held his own with him twice. He is a corner and is anxious for a win the third meeting. The boys will box at 140 pounds, the winner to take all of the purse.

Soldier Flynn, 17, and Sailor Hagen, 17, will furnish a 6-round semi-windup. Willie Manley and Kid Morgan, both fast lightweight miners at Wilton, will box four rounds.

It is expected the match will be the biggest held in Wilton for a long time.

Mike Gibbons of St. Paul is expected to referee.

Inland Chemical Co. Bismarck, N. D.

Some of the delegates to the eleventh convention of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union, to be held in Philadelphia November 11-16, will circumnavigate the globe in their journey to take part in their first convention ever held on "dry" land. Delegates from 40 nations will attend this world rally which will take place in the Academy of Music.

Many delegates are now on their way from Australia, Japan, China, India, Egypt, Turkey, Africa, England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, France, Cuba, Mexico, Canada, and several of the South American countries.

Mme. Kubushiro, national corresponding secretary of Japan's W. C. T. U., and a niece of Mme. Kaji Yajima, Japan's most famous woman, will come as an official delegate. She will represent her organization which owns its own headquarters at Tokyo, and has a membership of more than 5,000.

Miss Uta Hayashi from Osaka, decorated by the emperor for her work among women, will accompany Mme. Kubushiro.

Miss Marie Stenroth, an author of national repute, will represent her government which has commissioned her to study prohibition and the problems involved in its enforcement and make a report.

The Baroness de Laveleye, president of Belgium's W. C. T. U., will be the official delegate of her country. Miss Dagmar Prior will represent Norway and Denmark.

From Edinburgh comes Miss Jane Darling, proprietor of the Darling Regent hotel, known the world over. It has been in the family many years and has always been conducted on temperance lines.

Miss Consuelo Valdez is the delegate from the Philippine Islands. She is a graduate of the School of Pharmacy, University of the Philippines, and is now taking special courses at Northwestern university, Chicago.

Fraulein Wilhelmina Lohmann is one of the German delegates. She was the moving spirit of the recent semi-official vote, the first prohibition vote ever taken in Germany, where at Bielefeld, the unexpected number of 12,621 votes was returned for prohibition out of a poll of 14,061.

Fraulein Gustel von Blucher, the great-grand niece of the famous field marshal, will also attend the World convention as a delegate.

EXECUTION OF MURGUINA MAY BRING PEACE

General Pacification of Mexico Is Now Held Possible

(By the Associated Press.) Mexico City, Nov. 2.—A more optimistic spirit regarding the general pacification of Mexico could be sensed in government circles today as the result of the execution of General Francisco Murguía, rebel leader at Tepehuantes, Durango, yesterday.

All suspicion that the capture of Murguía while he lay asleep in a room behind the high altar of the Catholic church at Tepehuantes Tuesday night was a case of mistaken identity was scouted here. Dispatches describing the execution, said the body had been exhibited and had been recognized as that of the rebel leader by many persons.

The hastiness of the court martial which decided the fate of Murguía shortly after his arrest was explained by the fact that it was known he was seeking to prevent an immediate trial.

Friends of Pancho Villa chuckled over reports that the one time dreaded bandit had been killed or wounded. A friend of Villa displayed a telegram in which the former rebel said he was safe and sound and that telegram in which the former rebel said he was safe and sound and that no attempt had been made on his life. He described himself as busy "clicking the spade" on his ranch.

DEATH CONFIRMED

Washington, Nov. 2.—A statement issued by the Mexican embassy here today announced that official advices confirmed the press accounts of the execution of General Francisco Murguía and added:

"The death of Murguía puts an end to the last revolutionary attempt to disturb the peaceful conditions now prevailing in Mexico."

MAY ROB SULTAN OF HIS POWER

(By the Associated Press.) Paris, Nov. 2.—Latest reports reaching official quarters here from Angora, seat of the Turkish nationalist government, indicated that the heated session of the national assembly now under way will probably result in the adoption of a measure depriving the sultan of virtue of their present overwhelming military strength, but believe he will be retained for the real significance of his office.

It is explained that through the force of circumstances following the world war, the sultan has long since ceased to exercise any real civil power.

Postoffice Clerk Used Nose to Detect Money

Boston, Nov. 2.—Postoffice inspectors, in bringing charges of tampering with the mails against Edmund F. Donnelly, a clerk in the Manchester, N. H., postoffice today said Donnelly was able to smell money in envelopes.

They described how, with each of two test letters, he tore a small opening in the edge of the envelope, put slit to his nose and sniffed, and took bills out.

Borah Says Third Party Will Come if Care Is Not Taken

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 2.—Prediction that "the third party movement will sweep the country," in 1924 "unless there is a complete change of program on the part of the Republican party by the adoption of a liberal and constructive policy," was made by United States Senator Wm. E. Borah of Idaho here today. Senator Borah is enroute to Lewiston, Idaho, on a speaking tour.

CARTER DEFENSE IS OUTLINED

(By the Associated Press.) Minot, N. D., Nov. 2.—The defense of Harry W. Carter, held in the county jail at Stanley on a charge of murdering C. A. Madison, village marshal, probably will be "mistaken identity," according to Attorney E. R. Sinkler of this city, who has been retained as counsel for the defendant. The state supreme court has not yet ruled on the petition of the defendant asking for a change of venue and a new judge to try the case, it was said today.

WILL HOLD INQUEST.

Mandan, N. D., Nov. 2.—Inquest over the body of George Menke, who was killed in the railroad yards here yesterday, will be held at a late hour this afternoon.

To Burleigh County Voters:

A VOTE FOR COOPERATIVE AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION WORK will give you the services of a County Extension Agent, who is more necessary and valuable to the farmers than is a commercial club secretary to the business men of the cities.

- HIS DUTIES
1. He will help organize and launch Cooperative Marketing enterprises for such products as Livestock, Wool, Seeds, Cream and Potatoes.
  2. He will secure the aid of State Agents from the North Dakota Extension Division for solving special problems such as Grasshopper and Gopher control; eradication of Tuberculosis and Hog Cholera; introduction of a system of Cost Accounts on the Farm.
  3. He will be on the look-out for epidemics of insects or weeds which may threaten the crop, such as Cutworms, which are so prevalent in the western part of the state, and Sow Thistle, which is constantly spreading from the northeastern district. When these pests appear, he will launch a county-wide campaign against them.
  4. He will help introduce pasture and feed crops; rust resistant varieties of wheat; purebred sires and better dairy cattle.
  5. He will organize Boys' and Girls' clubs and supervise work for the members which will interest them in farming so that they will not want to leave for the city. At the same time the juniors on the farm will be earning money, securing educational advantages and getting a start in Purebred Livestock.
  6. He will arrange meetings of Farm Women at which talks and demonstrations will be given by State Agents in Nursing, Clothing, Sanitation, Food and other Home Problems.
  7. He will help spread farming practices which have been proven successful and profitable within the county.
  8. He will act as a clearing house between farmers who have articles and products for sale and those who want to buy them.
- The County Extension Agent makes available for each farmer the educational advantages and the knowledge gained through experiments conducted by the North Dakota Agricultural College and the United States department of Agriculture.

THE COST

The cost of maintaining extension work in Burleigh county would not exceed 8 cents per $1,000 of property valuation, and this cost is paid by all the Taxpayers of the County—Railways, Farmers, Bankers, Merchants.

The Cost Per Quarter Section Would Average Only 18 Cents.

About Patterson's Taxes

To the Voters of Burleigh County:

A report is being circulated and published by my opponent, that I do not pay my taxes. I have paid taxes in Burleigh County since 1883, and during that time have probably paid into the City Treasury and County Treasury over $150,000, and I defy any one to say that I have ever secured any reduction in my taxes, or evaded payment, except when the Soo Railroad was built, and the reduction I then received I gave to the Committee to secure the right of way of said Railroad, which many other citizens did. It is true that some of my taxes have not been paid and the same are now in the hands of the courts, my attorneys being Ex-Tax Commissioner George E. Wallace and William Langer. I stand ready to pay whatever the Courts may decree is due, I having placed in a special fund the entire amount of my taxes due ready to pay the County Treasurer when the Court may decide what is legally due. When the valuations were raised three years ago my property was raised in value from 300 to 500 per cent more in proportion than what other and similar properties were raised, and that is one of the causes of my suit. I appealed to the present State Tax Commissioners and they made a reduction, but in the judgment of my attorneys their reduction was not enough and I have appealed my case to the Courts.

I have done the same as hundreds of other people have done for years, and as the man who is trying to cause my defeat is now doing in the Courts. In my case the City and County can lose nothing and will receive every cent, with interest, of what is rightfully and legally due, and I will leave to the public if the property is not good for it.

If I must surrender my property rights and my privileges as a citizen in order to hold an official position, then I do not care to be County Commissioner, as my rightful and lawful rights and privileges are more dear to me than the office of County Commissioner.

I stand ready to serve the people but not if it necessary to surrender those rights.

O'CONNOR-NESTOS TICKET

FOR PARTISAN BALLOT

ARTISAN (NON-PARTISAN) BALLOT

If the O'Connor-Nestos ticket is elected on November 7th, North Dakota will be creditably represented in the House of Congress and have the confidence of the people of all other states. Half warrants will be cashable at par, farm loans will be renewed and extension of credit in other lines assured. On the other hand if we elect a man to represent us in the United States Senate who was recalled as governor of the state because he permitted the most flagrant graft and misuse of public funds, we must expect the people of other states to refuse to do business with us.

If the O'Connor-Nestos ticket is elected on November 7th, North Dakota will be one of the best governed states in the union. Public records will be open to the public and public funds will be used for the benefit of the public. Good people will come here to live and people who have money to invest or lend, will dare to put it in North Dakota. On the other hand, if the Frazier-Lemke ticket is elected, our treasuries will again be pillaged, our public records will be kept from the people and our public funds will be squandered in ventures like the Home Builders blunder.

If the O'Connor-Nestos ticket is elected on November 7th, North Dakota will have good schools and good courts and because of it, be respected by the entire world. On the other hand, if the Frazier-Lemke ticket is elected, our public schools and libraries will be polluted with socialistic literature and our school funds will be dissipated for political purposes.

Vote for every one of these. A governmental policy can not be fairly tried out with one half of the public officials for it and the other half against it.

An Open Letter to the Voters

Bismarck, N. D.
October 28, 1922.

Dear Voter:

I am a candidate for re-election as County Commissioner of the First Commissioner District for Burleigh County and I desired to see you personally—but owing to my large farming and other business interests and want of help, it will be impossible to see many of my constituents.

My district comprises all of the city of Bismarck south of the township line and within two miles of Menoken. The rule is that each Commissioner takes care of the roads in his individual district and I have never interfered with the work in another Commissioner's district. The records will show that I have expended less money for roads and bridges in my district since acting as Commissioner than has been expended in any other district.

The roads in my district are good. The worst roads in Burleigh County will compare favorably with the streets of Bismarck after leaving the paved streets and are far better than the streets to and around the Capitol Building and the Ferry road after leaving the N. P. crossing, which points are in the city limits. The road from the pavement on Main Street to the Penitentiary, which is in the city limits, was an eyesore and a disgrace for years until taken in charge by myself and put in the condition it is at present.

It is true that some roads in the county have not been kept in first class condition owing to the continual dry weather and because labor could not be secured. The County Commissioners have desired to give as much employment on the roads as possible to the individual farmers, and the Board has been limited in the amount that could be expended, the appropriation for 3,300 miles of road being Forty-five Thousand Dollars per year to keep in repair these roads and provide for the making of new roads.

There have been comments regarding the roads around the Patterson farm. I furnished the gravel for those roads without charge to the County and furnished more than half of the labor at my own expense, and the farms of Yegen, Wachter, Thompson, Griffin and others received the same benefit of my donation, and I will guarantee that, while I am on the Board, if anyone will furnish the gravel and half of the labor, as I did, I will build them as good roads as there are around the Patterson farm.

I am a large taxpayer in Bismarck and Burleigh County and it is certainly to my interest to keep the taxes low, both on city and county property. Your support will be deeply appreciated.

Respectfully yours,
Edward G. Patterson
